

Welcome to 8th Grade

Day 1

Introductions

- * Ms. Nakagawa
 - * 3rd year of teaching
 - * Math Teacher
 - * Things I value most in a student:
 - * Honesty
 - * Effort
 - * Attitude

Your turn

- * On the post it:
 - * Name you preferred to be called by
 - * Favorite school subject
 - * 1-3 Things you value in a teacher

Habit #3 – Putting First Things First

- * Take out your planner (or sheet of folder paper) & something to write with
- * Write the following:
 - Connecting for Success Consent Form
 - Emergency Card
 - MVA Form
 - Publication Release Form
 - AUP Form!!!
 - Lunch Application

Syllabus

- * Class Website: <http://www.e119.weebly.com>
- * Grade Breakdown:
 - * 50% = Advisory Activities
 - * 40% = Binder Checks & Learning Logs
 - * 10% = Quarterly Monitoring Sheet
- * Tutoring
 - * Recess, lunch, and after school

Classroom Tour

- * Student Materials Corner
- * Advisory Binders/Materials
- * AR Library
- * Desktops
- * Job Chart

Create your Job Pencil

- * Use an Expo pen to write your name on the given pencil
- * The pencil will be used to indicate which job you currently have for the week
- * Jobs include:
 - * Announcer, Librarian, Messenger, Paper Passer, Clean Up Crew, and Substitutes

Energizer - Birthday Line Up

- * Objective: Line up by birthday (NOT including year)
- * Obstacle: This must be done SILENTLY

Getting to Know You – Pen Pals

- * On the index card
 - * Write your name on the NON-lined side
 - * Flip the card over and write one or two interesting things about yourself
 - * Take 30 seconds to think first
 - * When I say go, then start writing
 - * Raise hand to submit your card
- * When done, read through important papers and begin signing them

Reminders ☺

- * BE SURE to get your forms signed
 - * Emergency Card, Publication Form, and AUP especially!
- * All Periods tomorrow